

Beech Hill Farm

A Project of College of the Atlantic

June 2010

GOOD LUCK GRADUATES

Beech Hill Farm would like to offer a special “thank you” to graduating seniors Michelle Soto and Jerzy Skupny. Michelle and Jerzy have spent several years out here at the farm contributing to the health and well being of the plants and vegetables. Thank you for all your hard work!

CSA SHARES STILL AVAILABLE!

It's True! We still have shares available for this season's Community Supported Agriculture program. Don't miss your chance to help support the farm and receive a box of assorted fresh veggies every week. For more info or to sign up email us at beechhillfarm@coa.edu.

- Nervous Nellies jams and jellies

THANK YOU WORK STUDY!

The farm has had a stellar crew of work study employees this spring. From planting tomatoes to seeding lettuce, our work study students have put in tons of time and energy to help get Beech Hill ready for the growing season. Soooo.....Thank You! Thank You! Thank You! work studiers for all of your hard work and enthusiasm. It is very appreciated.
