

Requirements and Expectations for Being a Davis Scholar

- You must be a graduate of a United World College (Class of 2000 or after).
- You must be accepted at College of the Atlantic.
- You must maintain consistent full-time enrollment (approved study abroad/away programs are considered full-time enrollment at COA).
- You must complete a Davis UWC Scholar Report Form at the start of your first year at COA.
- You must maintain satisfactory academic progress (GPA of 2.0 or better).
- You must cooperate with requests for information for the Davis UWC Scholars program, particularly for their To Move the World publication.
- You must budget your money wisely with respect for the generosity of the program.
- You must pay your student bill by the deadline, should you have one.
- You must act as ambassadors for the program and for COA.
- You must understand that The Davis UWC Scholarship is generally nontransferable, except in extenuating circumstances that would require a consensual agreement from administrative teams at both the home and prospective schools.

We appreciate your cooperation in attending events that may benefit current and future Davis Scholars and the COA community.
