Eligibility

Students may petition to participate in the graduation ceremony if they have not completed all of their degree requirements. This can only be the case if the student has a clear path to completing all degree requirements by the subsequent fall term.

Remaining requirements, timeline, and plan for completion

Below describe the degree requirements remaining as well as your timeline and plan for completion. Please attach supporting documentation of your plan for consideration. This could include written approval from an instructor to improve a failed grade or an extension for coursework or senior project for example.
